

Marge,

Sorry I've missed so much these last weeks — I have missed the love & fellowship always to be found with my friends. However I do not handle pain very well and have been having my share — Keep me in your prayers and I hope to see you all again on Wednesday — This is when Doc says I can be "swingin'" again — hopefully that just means pain free.

I would like for some special prayers to be said Sunday for our country, its leaders and our men & women fighting for us today. I believe its a special time and that prayer and our God is the answer. Take Care

In Gods Love

Steve

HISTORY OF ANCIENT ISRAEL

Test 2.

1. Identify any 5 of the following:

Omri	Huldah
Uzziah	Jeroboam I
Ahab	Hezekiah
Reheboam	Josiah
Jezebel	Absalom

2. From the Scripture passage provided, identify the prophet who is speaking, the political situation which he is addressing, the king in power at the time (if possible), and how the passage relates to the prophet's total ministry.
- a. And he said, This will be the manner of kings over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before the chariots. And he will appoint captains over thousands, and captains over 50's; and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots. And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers and to his servants. And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work. He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants.
- b. And he came to him and said: There were two men in one city; the one rich and the other poor. The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds: But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with his children; it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. And there came a traveler unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.
- c. Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts; lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. And I will not have mercy on her children; for they be the children of whoredoms. For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

- d. Woe unto you who desire the day of the Lord! to what end is it for you? the day of the Lord is darkness, and not light. As if a man did flee from a lion and a bear met him; or went into a house, and leaned upon the wall and a scorpion bit him. Shall not the day of the Lord be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it. I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies... but let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.
- e. I even I only, remain a prophet of the Lord; but Ba'al's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: And ye call on the name of your gods, and I will call upon the name of Yahweh: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God.
- f. And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord; and he shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord, and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: but with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.
- g. Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee, thou shalt speak. Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the Lord. Then the Lord put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. See, I have this day set thee over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, and to build and to plant.
3. Trace the rise of the United Kingdom through its major kings; include a discussion for and against the kingdom, and the reasons for its eventual fall.
4. Trace the decline of either Israel or Judah from the division; include a discussion of its good and bad kings (and/or queens), the international foes it faced which led to its downfall, and the internal situations which led them to believe it was God's will that the nation fall.
5. Discuss either the "Zion Theology," or "The Davidic Dynasty Theology" as they have been presented to this point.

Ms. Angel Palma
Student Clergy
Metropolitan Community Church of Pensacola

Dear Angel:

In the interest of harmony in the church, I am, under the powers given me as pastor of a mission, asking for your resignation from the student clergy program.

I would like you to remain out of any official status in the church for a period of one year. At that time, I would like to have you reapply should you be interested.

First, I believe this is for your eventual benefit. There are too many stressors in your life at the present time. One of them is the problem with your eye. The second is the fact of your education, and the amount of time and effort this takes for you. The third reason is personal. Student clergy must work with their pastors. I do not believe, at the present time, that you and I can work together amicably. I believe you need time to adjust to many things in your life.

I would hope that you would continue attending school. This will give you the knowledge and skills needed to even consider the clergy -- which is a highly educated and trained body in any church. I think when you have two years of college behind you, you may think and act differently. At least, it is my hope.

This is not a condemnation of the many good things you have done for the church. It is, however, a very real request that you get your life in order, get some more education, and let God direct your next steps.

I thank you for all you have done, and hope you will continue to be interested and continue working toward your goals, and that God will bless those efforts with increased wisdom, understanding and maturity.

In Christ's love,

Sincerely,
Rev. Marge Ragona

Dear Pastors and Worship Coordinators, Greetings Marge

At District Conference, November 2 - 4, in Pensacola, we had our first ever Student Clergy meeting. It was a good meeting and we were all thrilled to have the opportunity to meet together. At that meeting, I was selected as the Student Clergy Representative for our District. I need a little help from you and hope you will respond as soon as possible.

I am trying to make up a master list of all Student Clergy in the district. Could you please send me the names and addresses of your Student Clergy. This would really be a great help to me.

Also, there is a new procedure that all student clergy must follow. We must be registered as student clergy with the fellowship. The contact person for this registration is:

Rev. Ken Martin
CCCC Student Clergy Sub-Committee Chair
5730 Cahuenga Blvd.
N. Hollywood, California 91601

The cost of this registration is $15.00, I believe. Please have all your student clergy contact Rev. Martin and register.

We have lots of plans for our student clergy in the future and I hope that you will continue to support us with your prayers and your help. Hoping to hear from you soon.

Yours in Christ,

Dale
